AMBELLA HOME FALL 2015 HIGH POINT MARKET SPOTLIGHT:

UNIQUE DESIGN, TRANSITIONAL CASUAL STYLE INFLUENCES

DALLAS, TX (AUGUST 28, 2015) – Ambella Home will unveil more than 50 new accent furniture designs, 20+ new pieces of upholstery and 50 fabrics -- of which over half are exclusive to Ambella Home -- during the Fall 2015 High Point Market. Inspired by many cultures and reflecting a wide variety of styles, design and finishes, all pieces have classic scale and proportion. Another common thread tying the new introductions together is a strong emphasis on unique design and transitional casual style influences.

These new designs, as well as many of Ambella Home's best-selling designs, will be showcased in the company's Hamilton Wrenn Design District Showroom – 310 N. Hamilton, Ste 110 (entrance on Fred Alexander Place)

New Fall Market Introductions include:

VENTURA COCKTAIL TABLE

(02302-920-001) Made of American Walnut with a walnut satin finish. Sculpted side panels are covered in cane with a satin lacquer finish.

KEY WEST CREDENZA (02307-630-001) Crafted from American Walnut, this design features four pairs of doors with cane panels and a satin lacquer finish surrounding dramatic solid brass drop pulls. The doors open to compartments suitable for multi-use storage or electronic components.

RING MULTI-USE CABINET | DRIFTWOOD (07205-820-001) Blending French Art Deco and American Modern style influences in a fresh, new way, this cabinet design is as fabulous as it is functional. Made of American White Oak with a wire-brush texture and driftwood ceruse finish, this design can serve as a media cabinet, sideboard storage piece or console. Inset sculptural ring pulls open to reveal ample storage space, while the center section offers a cleverly concealed bank of drawers.
