DESIGN FAIRS High Point

The biannual giant of a furnishing fair returns to North Carolina on 14-18 October 2017. Predictions from interior designers and HP attendees in the know suggest textural whites, art as furnishings and 'salutes to the past' as things to look out for—all sources that rug brands with their fingers on the pulse have been mining for some time. Subtle metallic shades are set to shine, with Exquisite Rugs, Surya, Nourison and Feizy all unearthing the potential of this seam. The latter's new collections also investigate and reference tribal and textural threads.

New Moon extends its cushion collection and will launch eighteen new rug designs while Creative Touch has a line of rugs and cushions created with artist Carol Benson-Cobb, following their meeting at an earlier HP. Expect inspiring ranges from regular exhibitors Art Resources, French Accents, Feizy, Safavieh, Jaipur, Tamarian, F.J. Kashanian and Bokara Rug Company too.
