Legend of ASIA, a fast-growing high-end home furnishings brand, announced today that it is acquiring Artistic Porcelain, a 30 years old company providing Chinese porcelain décor and lighting. Jeff Sung, the owner of Artistic Porcelain for 30 years, will take a position as Chief Operation Officer at Legend of ASIA.

"We are incredibly excited to welcome Artistic Porcelain and Jeff to the Legend of ASIA family," said Andy Zhao, President of Legend of ASIA. "Both of our brands have enjoyed strong leadership positions in Asian inspired porcelain decor for many years. Artistic Porcelain provides us strong critical mass in one of our key expansion in lighting market and fits us strategically as a leading vendor to the retail and design trade communities. "

About Legend Accents / Legend of ASIA

Legend Accents/Legend of ASIA, a wholesale company in home furnishings. We specialize in handmade porcelain décor vases & jars, platters & bowls, figurines, garden stools, natural coral décor, porcelain table lamps and accents furniture. Customers include high end chain retail stores, boutique stores, hospitality groups and design trades from all over the world. The high temperature fire porcelain collections are made in the small town where ceramic and porcelain were originally invented many thousands of years ago. Every piece is hand shaped and hand painted. The technique and artwork have been passed only within the family from generation to generation. Our table lamps are fully assembled in the USA, provide unique accents in lighting décor.
