Dorya Style Makers- Continue to Put a Fresh Face on Global Style

The dynamic and talented duo behind Dorya is the husband-and-wife team F. Doruk Yorgancioglu, the company's President and CEO, and Megan Perry, Designer and Creative Director. The couple's fresh, sophisticated approach can be seen, not only in their chic products and numerous showrooms, but most importantly, in their attitude toward the industry with a philosophy that the pursuit of style is a way of life.

Doruk and Megan met in Washington, DC, while attending The George Washington University. Megan received a degree in Fine Arts and Interior Design while Doruk received a degree in International Affairs. Upon graduation, the couple joined Dorya, the 30 year old family business which designed and manufactured handmade high-end traditional furniture.

In 2007, Megan was appointed Dorya's Creative Director after her early success of the Contemporain collection - her opening foray into furniture design. The fresh and modern collection offers timeless appeal with a glamorous twist while continuing the importance of quality and craftsmanship which are paramount to the Dorya brand.

Constantly traveling the world for inspiration, the pair splits time between Miami, Turkey and the rest of the world. They believe the sophistication of design can only come from influences outside the industry, as they continue the commitment to produce fresh and elevated style for the ultra affluent clientele.

With several showrooms in Turkey, and multiple international vendors, Dorya already boasted a worldwide reputation for design excellence and superior craftsmanship. The couples' vision is to expand the range and geography for the brand.

In April 2010, Dorya was introduced to the US market with a launch party hosted by Architectural Digest Magazine during the April 2010 International Home Furnishings Market. Since debuting in the US, they have received two Pinnacle nominations, been profiled in Décor, Florida Design, Luxe and Traditional Home Magazines and featured in Architectural Digest, Bridges by Design, Design NJ, Lifestyle Magazine Brazil, Luxe, Megayachts Book, Miami Home & Décor, Miami-Modern Luxury, Interior Design, Palm Beach the Island, Robb Report, Trend Report, and Veranda Magazine

The duo's acclaimed talents of defining luxury continues to influence the high-end designer as they are featured in various media channels as 'Style Makers,' known for dynamic stunners that feature the paramount quality of Dorya. Megan shared her love of interior & furniture design with insights on global trends in a special Behind the Scenes with Megan Perry event during the Spring 2012 International Home Furniture Market. The event coincided with the Traditional Home Magazine feature of the couple's Izmir, Turkey home. Dorya's corporate offices moved to Miami that year to cultivate the spark state side, as they build and expand their US presence.

With both talents being perfectionists, Doruk and Megan continue to focus on the essence of the business, not the competition. What sets Dorya apart is that each Dorya piece can be customized – any size, any finish, and fabric. When the millennium couple is not designing luxurious furnishings, they are perfecting the e-commerce experience. They launched an interactive e-Store in 2013 that delivers real-time quote pricing configurations for custom furnishings. The dynamic product customization and real-time quoting defines Dorya's mantra that quality is in the details of all projects they undertake. It's for the "one size doesn't fit all" experience, and goes beyond barriers of providing top-shelf service to not only the high-style designer, but their affluent clientele as well.

The pair's newest chapter is the recent launch of Trump Home® by Dorya®, a 50 piece signature collection. With both Trump & Dorya being synonymous with luxury, the opportunity to design a collection recognized on a global stage that has surpassed style expectation has been their latest accomplishment. Expect to see a fresh sophistication of sleek modern lines and elevated styles evolve as the couple plans the next reveal.
