We Love Interior Designers Who Write Books!

Books link us to the past, present, and the future. They bring warmth and texture to a room to make a house feel like a home. Old books add the same patina to a room as do well-chosen antiques. A book collection can give incredible insight into a person's life journey and their intellect. Creating beautiful bookscares is the hallmark of many interior designers and decorators whether the books are old or new and give a sense of aesthetic drama to any room.

This October at High Point Market, Currey & Company is delighted to host three new designer book signings by noted authors – Carl Dellatore, Andrea Schumacher and Kathryn Greeley.

Join us on October 22 from 3 to 5PM as we celebrate More is More is More by Carl Dellatore, published by Rizzoli New York 2022. This book celebrates the best of lavish maximalist interiors by Bunny Williams, Marjorie Skouras, Sasha Bikoff, and more. Each of the book's five chapters begins with an essay on a theme - color, pattern, surfaces, elements, and layering followed by dozens of showstopping rooms.

Meet interior designer Andrea Schumacher on October 23 from 4 to 6 PM as she debuts her new book – Vibrant Interiors published by Gibbs Smith 2022. Vibrant Interiors features the best of Schumacher's designs. Inviting and imaginative homes showcase her creativity in developing energetic, exuberant, personality-filled spaces with a well-balanced mix of complexity and simplicity. Join us as we celebrate this book filled with stunning photography

Kathryn Greeley will join us on October 24 from 3 to 5 PM to debut her new book: The Collected Cottage. Ms. Greeley will be in the showroom to sign her book and share her personal journey through her gardens and her enchanting home located in the North Carolina mountains. Celebrate every season gardening, gathering, and collecting at her beloved home - Chestnut Cottage!

Signed copies of the books will be available for purchase.
