

Modloft to debut Modloft Black for luxury retailers and designers in High Point, Spring 2019

March 15, 2019 (Miami, FL) – Modloft, a high-design furniture manufacturer, announces the introduction of its luxurious signature line, Modloft Black. Created with the most discerning clients in mind, no detail or consideration has been spared in the extraordinary design and meticulous attention to detail found in these award-winning and awe-inspiring pieces. The collection was designed and manufactured in Brazil and has an attractive design-to-price ratio, offering customers statement-making pieces with reasonable pricing.

“Modloft Black was built from the ground up by design lovers, for design lovers. From ultra-thin table tops to premium Italian fabrics, we put together an inaugural collection that needs to be seen in person to truly appreciate. We are thrilled to unveil these designs to the trade community in High Point Market,” says Ted Toledano, Managing Director of Modloft.

Modloft invites luxury retailers and designers to discover Modloft Black at the 220 Elm Building, Space 329, during High Point Market, April 6-10, 2019.

For more information about Modloft Black, or to register for a private tour of the collection at Market, please visit modloftblack.com.