Calligaris and Connubia Return to High Point Market with Bold New Fall Collections

Italian Innovation and Contemporary Living Take Center Stage at Casa Italia

High Point, NC – October 2025 – Calligaris and Connubia are excited to announce their return to High Point Market Fall 2025, showcasing an inspiring new lineup of residential and contract furnishings. The immersive experience will be hosted once again at the elegant Casa Italia showroom, located at 130 W. Commerce Ave., Floor 1, conveniently accessible via Bus Stop 14 (Red/Green Line).

This Fall, both brands continue to redefine modern interiors with expressive forms, innovative materials, and enduring craftsmanship. Calligaris presents a sophisticated evolution of its bestselling silhouettes, while Connubia introduces colorful, lifestyle-driven pieces that cater to a new generation of design enthusiasts.

“High Point Market is not only a showcase—it’s a statement,” says Paolo Pantaloni, Marketing and Sales Director at Calligaris. “This Fall, we’re offering a complete expression of Italian living, from modular functionality to sculptural beauty, all designed for today’s global lifestyle.”

Among the highlights this season are versatile dining tables, soft seating with architectural lines, and expanded lighting collections, each thoughtfully curated to elevate both residential and contract spaces. With an increased focus on adaptability, sustainability, and comfort, the new offerings provide creative solutions for designers and specifiers seeking both form and function.
