A NEW ERA OF TRADITIONAL DESIGN: MR. & MRS. HOWARD INTRODUCE DESIGNS WITH HAND-CARVED ARTISAN DETAILS AT HIGH POINT MARKET

HIGH POINT, N.C. – Jim and Phoebe Howard proudly introduce their latest pieces, a refined expression of traditional design and hand-carved artisan detail. These new introductions reflect the brand’s enduring commitment to creating heirloom-quality pieces infused with subtle yet memorable design moments.

Defined by clean lines and smooth finishes, the new products celebrate timeless silhouettes while adding fresh character through eye-catching woodwork and statement shapes. From hand-carved bedposts and arched chair backs to graceful kick-pleat skirts and turned legs, each piece shows the beauty of furniture design.

With a curated color palette and the ability to color-match any casegoods piece with Benjamin Moore or Farrow & Ball hue, the hand-painted furniture in this collection offers endless personalization.

The faux bamboo frame of the Benjamin Bar Cart from the Nellie Jane collection, finished in a soft Benjamin Moore 1563 Quiet Moments finish, creates a breezy, airy feel, while antiqued mirrored shelving adds a subtle shimmer. The decorative lattice sides bring eye-catching detail from every angle, and brass-finished casters make it easy to maneuver from cocktails to coffee.

Winthrop Game Table
