

Adriana Hoyos Hosts Designer Event for Fall High Point Market Six design influencers will discuss evolving needs of luxury clientele

HIGH POINT, N.C. – Adriana Hoyos Furnishings will present The Evolution of Luxury, an exclusive designer panel in the company's showroom, located at 117 North Hamilton Street, during High Point Market, on Saturday, Oct. 25, at 11 a.m.

The panel brings together six influential voices in the design industry—Adriana Hoyos, Anne-Marie Barton, Jessica Davis, Nikki Levy, Laura Umansky, and Rebekah Zaveloff—to explore how the definition of luxury is shifting for today's interiors. With discerning clients placing greater emphasis on personal expression, wellness amenities, bespoke experiences, and incorporating inspiration from global travels, designers are responding with more nuanced, highly curated solutions.

Moderator Laura Umansky—an award-winning interior designer and co-host of the Design Dash podcast—will query panelists about what their clients value today, including a renewed focus on craftsmanship and customization. Attendees can expect a lively, peer-to-peer discussion. An interactive audience Q&A will allow opportunities for market guests to engage directly with the panelists.

Following the program, guests are invited to enjoy light bites and refreshments while exploring the Adriana Hoyos Furnishings showroom and networking with fellow design professionals.
