

The Chakra Collection

The Chakra Collection by Lit Moments Candle Company is an intentional fragrance series inspired by the body's seven energy centers. Each candle is thoughtfully blended to align with a specific chakra, supporting balance, clarity, and emotional well-being through scent.

Crafted with clean, sustainable materials and layered fragrance profiles, this collection invites moments of grounding, reflection, and renewal. Whether used for meditation, self-care, or everyday rituals, each candle is designed to create a sense of harmony within both space and self.
