re.curated

by Joanne Palmisano with Fireside Lodge Furniture

2026 – Joanne Palmisano, author and award-winning Interior Designer is a leading name in the reclaimed and salvage industry, is proud to announce the launch of furniture collection, re.curated, with Fireside Lodge Furniture, which celebrates the mixing of modern elegance with sustainable. Her customizable line, includes reclaimed oak from old tobacco barns and locally-sourced hickory.

The new collection features timeless designs, heirloom quality construction, premium leather and fabrics selections for headboard inset, and rich wood stain palettes, reflecting the Joanne and Fireside's commitment to style, quality, and innovation.

Each piece is thoughtfully crafted to offer quality comfort without compromising on style, built for the rigors of the hospitality industry and residential projects, for designers who value both functionality and character.

Built by craftspeople in the USA, with the option to change stains and fabrics, these furniture pieces are timeless and sustainable.
