HURTADO FURNITURE 2018 SPRING HIGH POINT MARKET

Los Angeles, CA. (March. 16, 2018)—HURTADO FURNITURE will make a luxurious and glamorous statement at the upcoming 2018 Spring High Point Market. Hurtado is set to introduce new designs that expand the success of the most recent collections and will highlight the use of the luxury materials. Hurtado will feature dining tables, end tables, consoles and coffee tables inspired by musical notes from the CORAL Collection and the SOHO Collection which has now become a signature collection for Hurtado. The entire Hurtado Furniture collection can be seen during market at 208 W. English Rd. High Point, NC. from April 14-18, 2018.

Hurtado has had much success with their newest contemporary designs, as the designs are a stylish embodiment of luxury. One of the designs that will appear at Spring 2018 High Point Market is the Coral Armchair (CR645900) which is an elegant and contemporary classic featuring Lescau fabric and brown oak legs. This season, we will also see the Velador Glass Top End Table; it has a dynamic and balanced design, using both polished metal and beautifully stained wood to create a captivating juxtaposition of classic design and innovation (CR10100). The Coral Cocktail Table is the epitome of simplified elegance, combining the concepts of minimalism and traditional design. The smooth Dark Rosewood joins perfectly at each vertex and is offset perfectly by the sliding drawer in Natural Oak (CR1001).

Hurtado's collections will also be seen at the upcoming Salone del Mobile, Milano from April 17-22, 2018 at XLUX Hall 1 Stand F01. Hurtado is also already working with new materials to be introduced in October along with a traditional collection with heavy marquetry design. Though known across the globe for their modern, sleek, and urban-contemporary designs, Hurtado is deeply rooted in tradition and will continue to introduce traditional designs while expanding across the world.
