Olliix Welcomes Jim Telleysh as Senior Vice President

HIGH POINT, N.C., September 19, 2018 — Olliix, a wholesale home furnishings and décor company, warmly welcomes Jim Telleysh as its new Senior Vice President.

Most recently, Telleysh worked as the national sales manager at Watermark Living, where he played a crucial role in identifying opportunities that benefitted the brand. An industry veteran with over 25 years of experience, Telleysh has also held previous leadership roles at Braxton Culler Inc., Lexington Home Brands, and Southern Furniture Co.

Telleysh's first steps as Senior Vice President focus on the customer, whom he says, should "expect to see even faster deliveries with the increased capacity and consolidation of our Savannah warehouses." Moreover, at the upcoming High Point Market, Telleysh plans on introducing, "a wide range of new products from upholstery, case goods, lamps, accessories, top of the bed and now, a new rug assortment." He notes with enthusiasm, "If you can't find it here at Olliix, you won't find it in High Point!"

As the newest addition to the Olliix team, Telleysh comments, "I am very excited to join the Olliix/JLA HOME team — the company has seen amazing growth over the past ten years with a diverse assortment of product, quick turn around times, and an exceptional service department." Telleysh believes that Olliix is a brand that is "positioned well for the future," and his role serves as a driving force in leading and further strengthening the company.

Olliix, a JLA Home company, is a wholesale platform providing home furnishing solutions that address the lifestyles of today's consumers. Olliix provides direct online access to over 12,000 products ranging from living room furniture, bedroom products, kitchen/dining furniture, and unique home decorative accents such as lamps, wall art and décor.
