

Nathan Anthony Furniture Announces Cara Woodhouse Design Collaboration

Upholstery inspired by interiors project for pop artist By Robyn Blair

LOS ANGELES – Custom upholstery specialist Nathan Anthony Furniture announces a new design partnership with Brooklyn-based interior designer Cara Woodhouse.

The Nathan Anthony x Cara Woodhouse collaboration began as Woodhouse was tapped by niche pop artist Robyn Davidson for the interior design of her Tribeca loft apartment, now in progress. Davidson creates original candy art under the label By Robyn Blair, Nathan Anthony has been a preferred vendor for the interior designer's custom upholstery work, and a natural fit for bringing the high-profile project to life.

Working in tandem with Tina Nicole, lead designer and co-founder of the award-winning furniture resource, the collection of signature upholstered items, conceived by Woodhouse for the living areas and bedroom, will debut in a special presentation in Nathan Anthony's High Point Market showroom, InterHall space IH-602, Oct. 19 - 23.

By Robin Blair wall art and decorative objects, carried by retailers like Harry Winston and Bergdorf Goodman, and featured in top media outlets, including Architectural Digest, Modern Luxury and Forbes, will add to the showroom display.

Woodhouse - whose Instagram following approaches 160,000 - has been named a rising design star by New York Cottages and Gardens. She expresses a bold, modern aesthetic, aligning with her business focus on luxury clientele.

After the fall trade show, Woodhouse will exclusively offer the Nathan Anthony-produced items through her new shoppable content platform at www.woodhousedecor.com.
