Paragon debuts newly remolded showroom and celebrates 45 years

Paragon is excited to debut their newly remodeled showroom at the upcoming High Point Market as part of their 45 year anniversary, along with more than 500 new designs for market.

“We remodeled the showroom in the spring, but because of COVID, we were unable to unveil the new upgrades” said Lendell Glassco, president of Paragon. “So we are definitely excited to be open and know the customers will be excited about our new look.”

Paragon is also premiering more than 500 new products with exclusive additions to Libby Langdon’s collection which launched last fall to tremendous success “We are thrilled to provide exciting new products to our customers,” said Malanta Glassco-Knowles. “Since we are a domestic manufacturer, we have been able to create and develop new products as normal, keeping our assortment fresh and on trend.”

Paragon’s other art introductions include a wide variety of designs, featuring exclusive artists and art developed by their in-house designers. Paragon’s Studio Collection which showcases hand painted art, will be debuting new designs as well. The fall collection focuses on updated traditional art with a touch of contemporary that gives the collection a transitional feel.

Paragon will also be offering virtual showroom tours on Tuesday October 13th by appointment at 10 am and 2 pm EST. In addition, customers may book appointments for personalized in-person or virtual showroom tours during market. Customers should go to www.paragonpg.com to book appointments.
