Nathan Anthony Furniture Fuses Design with Art for Alais Collection

Nathan Anthony Furniture x Tina Nicole x Sahara Novotna

LOS ANGELES – Custom upholstery resource Nathan Anthony Furniture debuts its latest design collaboration in the company's permanent showroom in InterHall, space IH-602, during Spring High Point Market, beginning Friday, April 1.

Nathan Anthony Furniture x Tina Nicole x Sahara Novotna reflects the collaboration between award-winning furniture designer Tina Nicole and collectible multimedia artist Sahara Novotna. Merging their respective talents in the design and art worlds, the pair have produced a unique collection of upholstered furnishings.

Adding to Nathan Anthony's Alais collection this season are a fully upholstered daybed, a plush sofa, and a sculptural accent chair — each are distinguished by handcrafted, ball feet produced in resin.

Nicole designed the upholstery frames while Novotna crafted the 8-inch spheres, using an artisanal process she developed in her Los Angeles studio. Each resin ball bears the artist's unique stamp.

Incorporating art into designed spaces is also the subject of two-day activation in the Nathan Anthony showroom, Saturday and Sunday, April 2 - 3, from 1 to 3 pm. Novotna, who has performed live art installations at venues in Los Angeles and at Art Basel in Miami, will reflect on elements of the natural world to create an original wall artwork. Attendees will be eligible for a drawing to receive a unique art object created by the artist.

The Alais collection is additionally distinguished by Nicole's fabric cover selection for the Spring showroom presentation, including Italian body cloths sourced from Fishman Fabrics in Chicago.

For the benchmade upholstery specialist, all items in the collection are fully customizable, along with the option for C.O.M.

Buyers may contact inquiries@nafurniture.com to schedule a High Point Market showroom appointment.
