Precedent Explores National Trends: New Introductions Infused with Inspirations from Around the Nation

HIGH POINT, N.C. – This fall, Precedent is presenting its latest introductions at High Point Market, which are a fusion of sustainable design principles and contemporary retro. These trends seamlessly weave the timeless charm of retro aesthetics together with the modern ethos of sustainability.

Precedent will also be styling rooms based on different regions throughout the United States with a unique twist. These regions include pieces with light and bright woods to represent the coast, modern rustic with midwestern vibes, and updated lakefront transitional silhouettes.

“Precedent takes pride in offering modern and transitional upholstery that seamlessly complements a wide range of design preferences and customers who live in different regions of the United States,” said Tom Zaliagiris, vice president of sales and marketing for Precedent.
