Mr. and Mrs. Howard Embrace Interesting Shapes with Coastal Modern Influences and Explore Turkish Revival with Nellie Jane Collection

HIGH POINT, N.C – Mr. and Mrs. Howard for Sherrill Furniture, the dynamic collaboration between designers Jim and Phoebe Howard, is set to captivate audiences at the highly anticipated fall 2023 High Point Furniture Market. Renowned for its beautiful design fusion of traditional and contemporary sensibilities, grounded in timeless theory, the brand introduces its latest collection, Nellie Jane for Mr. and Mrs. Howard, featuring pieces inspired by the Turkish Revival style.

The new Nellie Jane Collection from Jim and Phoebe's daughter, Nellie Howard Ossi, is a testament to Nellie's ability to draw inspiration from diverse cultures. This year, Market goers will witness the unveiling of pieces inspired by the Turkish Revival style. The collection boasts intricate details, rich colors, and captivating patterns, paying homage to the elegance of Turkish design history.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard for Sherrill Furniture continues to push boundaries with trendsetting elements that redefine furniture aesthetics. Their new introduction this season showcases interesting shapes, embodying the spirit of creativity and uniqueness. These shapes infuse character and personality into every piece, inviting individuals to embrace design with an open perspective.

New leg styles emerge as a focal point in the collection, adding a touch of innovation and individuality to each piece. The choice of leg styles enhances the overall aesthetic, catering to a wide range of design preferences.

The brand also seamlessly blends "New Traditional" with "Coastal Modern" influences. This fusion captures the best of both worlds, creating pieces that exude classic elegance while resonating with a contemporary coastal charm.

Sydney Wells, director of marketing for all of Sherrill's brands, expressed, "The Howard's latest introductions stand as a testament to their commitment to beautiful design that transcends time. With the new Nellie Jane Collection, they are able to explore new styles and pay homage to Turkish Revival, infusing history with a modern twist."
