KEVIN O'BRIEN STUDIO INTRODUCES METALLIC COLLECTION

Philadelphia, PA – July 2015 - Kevin O'Brien Studio launches a new addition to their metallic collection. These hand-printed metallic linens are a departure from their leading velvets, but add dimension to the collection. The new metallics are all made at their Philadelphia studio.

The new linen metallic pillows are offered in five patterns including: Leopard, Small Moroccan, Woodgrain, Lovebirds, and Arches. Along with the linen metallics, Kevin O'Brien Studio has had great success with their velvet metallics. New candy-coated themed colors are now available in the silk velvets including: Cotton Candy Blue, Sour Apple and Fruit Punch.

Kevin O'Brien began his career painting fabric almost by accident, and a happy accident it was. To this day, they still use their exclusive hand-painted technique mixing all dyes by hand to create not only a decorative accessory, but an art piece. Pillows are made-to-order in Philadelphia studio by a trusted team of employees.
