Design Legacy is excited about the launch of its NEW “Michelle Nussbaumer at Design Legacy” Collection. The collaboration between Design Legacy lead designer Kelly O'Neal and Michelle Nussbaumer will be introduced at the Design Legacy Building at 126 Virginia Place, during the October High Point Market. The line will include many exciting and exclusive new textiles, upholstered pieces, and a collection of wall art -- all made in USA at the Design Legacy facility in Dallas, Texas.

Michelle Nussbaumer’s Instagram profile reads “Wife, mother of four, designer, lover of beauty, peace monger, tree hugger, and globetrotter.” She says, “That’s really who I am. In that order.” Her journey from West Texas wild child to Dallas design doyenne with four children includes detours through Rome and Los Angeles, tons of travel, and a roster of stints from writing and juice-bar design to product development. She has a reputation for making Dallas—and the world—a more beautiful place through her interior design, and her brick and mortar Atelier "Ceylon et Cie" located in the Design District in Dallas, TX,

Design Legacy Owner, Kelly O’Neal says of the collection “Michelle's aesthetic exudes a globe-trotting energy unparalleled in the market and is certain to inspire a new lifestyle trend in the market. We think the spirit of the collection is in tune with Design Legacy's own free-willed bounty and we are thrilled that she chose us to launch her certain to be head-turning premier High Point effort."

Design Legacy will also host a book signing by Michelle Nussbaumer for her new book, Wanderlust, on Sunday, October 23 from 12:00 pm until 5:00 pm at their High Point Showroom. A courtesy shuttle is provided by calling (336) 883-3880.
