The first time Zac & Tomo tasted moonshine, it was distilled from a recipe five generations old.

Firsts that last. North Carolina.

See their story at VisitNC.com.
The North Carolina agriculture exporting team works closely with producers and suppliers of North Carolina agricultural commodities. Provides essential resources needed to bridge the gap between international buyers and North Carolina agribusinesses, introducing the world to the wide variety of goods our state offers.

North Carolina’s International Trade Division has experts around the world to help North Carolina companies prosper by growing internationally. With two domestic offices and six foreign office locations, the international trade team provides expert assistance to North Carolina firms seeking overseas market opportunities.

The SBTDC’s International Business Development (IBD) team assists small and mid-sized businesses with global business including exporting. Our goal is to increase the number of mid-sized businesses that are exporting and to assist existing small business exporters in expanding their foreign markets.

U.S. Export Assistance Centers are located in Charlotte, Greensboro and Raleigh. The U.S. Commercial Service has 150 overseas offices and provides small to medium U.S. companies with export procedure guidance, market research, introductions to qualified global buyers and advocacy. The U.S. Commercial Service also works closely with the North Carolina District Export Council to provide Export Universities, mentoring and export assistance.

North Carolina Ports offers two excellent port locations, Wilmington and Morehead City, both with unique benefits. The Port of Wilmington has two neo-Panamax cranes and four post-Panamax container cranes. The Port of Morehead City is just four miles from the Atlantic Ocean. Both offer extensive warehousing and open storage, and both provide easy access to interstate highways and major railroads. Our customer-focused approach also means shippers receive excellent port communication and customized service.

The EXIM Bank is an independent federal agency that fills gaps in private export finance in order to bolster U.S. job growth at no cost to American taxpayers. EXIM provides trade financing solutions – including export credit insurance, working capital guarantees, and guarantees of commercial loans to foreign buyers – to empower exporters of U.S. goods and services.
